

We pray you are doing well and staying healthy during these challenging times. Thank all of you who choose everyday to be customers of PaperPack.

In the midst of all our efforts, we are encouraged by those of you choosing to go to our website and shop for all your needs, especially paper and sanitizing supplies. Also, for contacting our office, our customer service, and our salesmen seeking to access similar products.

We apologize for having to tell too many of you of our temporary out-of-stock and backorder situations regarding hand sanitizers, dispensers, surface cleaners, toilet tissue, and masks. One exceptional good line of continuous supply has been our disposable gloves. Also, all our packaging materials continue to flow and be readily accessible for your needs. We are increasing our efforts to keep all of our product pipelines filled.

Please keep in contact with us and we will find the products to help provide the ammunition to fight COVID-19 and keep your business and livelihood growing and prospering.

Please continue to enter your orders by phone, email, fax, online, or personal contact with your salesman. For online orders of janitorial paper goods and hand/surface sanitizer products, please additionally consider contacting our customer service directly at 706/368-9162, exts. 10 and 11, or via email at orders@paperpackinc.com for inventory or delivery status.

Again, we appreciate you deciding to do business with PaperPack for your industrial paper, packaging machinery and materials, and promotional goods and services. We will continue to listen to your questions and strive to have your answers.
